Petition To Revive Unintentionally Abandoned Patent Application

Under 37 CFR §1.137(b)

Sir:

Applicant hereby petitions to revive of the above identified patent application.

Petitioner received a notice of abandonment on March 25, 2003 stating that for failure to timely reply to the Notice to File Missing Parts mailed on February 4, 2002 had not been received.

Please charge my deposit account 14-1270 in the amount of $1240 under §1.17(m)(1), for filing this petition for revival of an unintentionally abandoned application.

The entire delay from the due date of the reply until the filing of this petition was unintentional.

The Commissioner is hereby authorized to credit any overpayment or charge any other required fee during the pendency of this application (except the issue fee) to Account No. 14-1270.

In re Application of Penain and Seguy
Application No. 10/032,992
Filed: December 26, 2001
Attorney Docket No. FR 000156LETTER AND
NOTICE OF ABANDONMENT

Reference is made to the above-cited application for patent and a deficiency that has resulted in the abandonment of the application, with the effective date of such abandonment being April 5, 2002.

On February 4, 2002, a "Notice to File Missing Parts of Nonprovisional Application" (the "Notice") was mailed to the applicant and, among other requirements, indicated that an oath or declaration that complied with 37 CFR 1.63 was missing. The Notice provided a two-month period for reply and advised that extensions of the time set for reply were available pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a). On February 6, 2003, a petition under 37 CFR 1.47 was filed along with a declaration executed by inventor Seguy. The petition under 37 CFR 1.47(a) cannot be entertained as a response to the Notice because the petition was not timely filed. As a result, the application became abandoned on April 5, 2002. The application must be revived pursuant to 37 CFR 1.137(a) or (b) before the petition under 37 CFR 1.47(a) will be treated.
